My dear Son

Rec'd yrs of 14th at 11 A.M. and immediately went to Mr Whitworth's office to learn if he had any advices. I then rec'd yrs at Redding (Frank thought Mr M might be in town & take it out) Arrange work as suggested in yours fourteenth and record before leaving. I will be here Wed'y & Thursday next.

You probably had not rec'd my letters regarding proceeding to patent when you wrote.

It seems strange that Young should make that mistake. I - hope he will not discover it is such. We should have notice served upon just as though he is right. He probably has the Mammoth Vein in view to increase apparent value of his re-location claim. expecting he will be bought off. I do not think you should approach him for that purpose. Should he seek you that is another matter. I never refused to pay $75. for the houses. I included that in the verbal and written statement I made to Mr. Gotzfeud. I also told Mr Morton that I was not going to stand on a paltry matter of $75. after I spent nearly that many thousands for the property. That I did say I repeat it, "I never before agreed to anything of the kind.
